

Reclamation Manual

Directives and Standards

General Title XVI Project Development Process*

*Note: This flowchart is intended to provide a general idea of how a Title XVI project could be developed from conception to completion. The actual process is project specific and should be developed on a project-by-project basis.